"I worked with CFS in 2009, when our organization was searching for an accounting professional. It was an absolute pleasure working with the Executive Recruiter. The candidate we hired, with their assistance, has proven to be an outstanding addition to our company. One thing I appreciated most about CFS was their customer focus. The consultant worked hard at determining exactly what we were looking for, and when they presented candidates, I felt as though each one brought something we were looking for to the table. I appreciated the professionalism and zeal in which they performed their job! From the first conversation we had, through the presentation of the offer, CFS conducted business in a highly professional manner. Their communication with me and the candidates was exceptional. Perhaps the thing I appreciated most about working with this particular consultant was their passion. The professionals at CFS are driven to do a great job and the results proved it!"

I have worked with many recruiters through the years and have had good and bad experiences. Without hesitation, I would put the experience I had working with CFS at the top of my list! I would highly recommend CFS to anyone who is looking to fill a position within their organization."

I wouldn't hesitate to encourage both candidates seeking employment and companies seeking to fill vacant positions, to use CFS in their search."
